

THE PLYMOUTH DEMOCRAT.

A. C. THOMPSON, : : : : : Editor.

PLYMOUTH, INDIANA.
THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 13

FO. PRESIDENT.
STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.
HERSCHELL V. JOHNSON, OF GEORGIA.

On The Jeffersonian Platform.

The blatant hypocritical leaders of the Abolition Republican party say they are "on the Jeffersonian Platform," and, as Old Abe is the exponent of their principles, he, of course, is also, "on the Jeffersonian Platform." For the purpose of showing how dishonest they are and that they only say this for the purpose of catching Democratic votes, we give the following extract from a speech made by "Honest Old Abe" in the year 1844, which shows how the old traitor then lived one of the noblest patriots and ablest statesmen that ever lived in Indiana—Thomas Jefferson. When unprincipled Black Republican scoundrels of being on the "Jeffersonian Platform," we hope our Democratic friends will throw the following sentences of Old Abe into their teeth. Here is his opinion of Jefferson sixteen years ago:

"Mr. Jefferson is a statesman in whose praises are never out of the mouths of the Democratic party. Let us attend to this uncomplimentary friend of freedom whose name is continually invoked against the White party. The character of Jefferson was repulsive. Continually pulling against liberty, equity, and the degrading curse of slavery, he brought his own children to the hammer, and made money of his delinquencies. Even at his death he did not manumit his numerous slaves, but left them, soul and body, to degradation and the cruel whip. A daughter of this wretched clannishness of Democracy, was sold some years ago at public auction in New Orleans, and purchased by a society of gentlemen, who wished to testify, by her liberation, their admiration of the statesman, who

"Dreamt of freedom in a slave's embrace."

This single line I have quoted gives more insight to the character of the man than could volumes of piousness. It will outlive his epitaph, write it on his tomb."

The old ingratitude that sixteen years since slandered the great and noble dead, now tries to make the people of this enlightened country believe that Jefferson, was as great an Abolitionist as we, Lincoln now is. Every man who honors Jefferson, or applauds in any degree the misdeeds of this government, should remember at the polls this fall, the wretch who has thus slandered the memory of the very patriot that drew up the Declaration of Independence.

Finding they could not destroy his good name they now try to make political capital out of it. They are as destitute of shame as they are of conscience, principle, patriotism, or honesty.

Mattingly on Hendricks' Speech.

Mattingly in his last week's issue of his lying sheet wrote an article concerning the speech of Hon. THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, delivered here on the Saturday previous to his issue. In his article we believe he did not tell but one truth and that was that Hendricks made a speech.

The old liar was not there, but, without hearing one word of the speech he goes on to misrepresent it in the most reckless manner in his life. He says he got his information from Republicans who attended the speech, "and they all represent it as abounding in falsehood and misrepresentation." We are fully persuaded that the old slither in the above quotation has slandered many of his Republican friends who were in attendance, for there was not an audience there but Anti or False for we would aspersions for being such an unscrupulous liar as Mattingly makes them out to be. We heard several honest Republicans say that it was an honest, able and gentlemanly speech, and others said they would not care if he were elected Governor, and that they would not say anything against him.

Old Betzeloh, undoubtedly heard some of his friends say about the same and thought he must do something to counteract the impression his speech had on the minds of the honest Republicans who heard him.

Almost every charge Mr. HENDRICKS made against the party he prated by their own testimony, making their own words convict them. In his speech he did not use an ungentlemanly phrase toward his opponents. While speaking of Lincoln, Hamilton and Lane, he proved every charge he made against them by their own record, words and deeds. This is just what the matter, — he proved it to his own satisfaction. Mattingly was told that it was a powerful speech and that something must be done, and so being at a loss for any reason he resorted to his never-fail argument, that it was all "falsehood and misrepresentation." He did not like the way Mr. Hendricks handled the record of Hamilton on the Homestead question, as the Colonel gave the date of all Hamilton's votes. The old hypocrite blows about the Homestead bill very extensively and it hurts him to have it proven thus his candidate for the Vice Presidency has always voted against it.

"Republicans Awake."

"We must not rest in supineness or the victories we have won in March of the last three years will all be lost. The time has come for action. Every man who is sincerely opposed to the extension of slavery, and who loves his race, has a great duty to perform."

The above is from the Republican of last week. It shows at the same time the old gentleman's love for the negro and his fear of defeat. It does not sound much like he thought they were going to give the state ticket or two hundred majority. Now he will be content if he gets what he told him he might think his stars for — a majority — no matter how small. The above is evidence that he thinks the cause a desperate one, and instead of blowing about the large majority they are going to roll up in Marshall county, he is getting nervous on account of the real and enthusiastic of the Democracy of our county.

Democrats, so far, we have done a good work and have the opposition in this county badly scared, but we must not be lulled into security by our apparent strength and their nervousness. We have much to do yet. Let every one of us discharge what we know to be our individual duties and we will redeem Marshall county from Black Republican rule. Let our friends see to it, that every Democrat in the county is at the polls. Although we will gain considerable by accession to our party, yet our greatest gain will be in routing every one of our voters so that they will come to the election.

The prominent Republicans of this county have been counting noses and found themselves in the minority though probably not many votes. This is why the old dog trembles when his friends in the manner he does in the article referred to. We do not now, nor have we at any time since we came here, claimed a large majority, and we want every Democrat to understand and that they have to come out if we secure a victory, and further, we seek them that if they will come out, this victory is surely ours. When the voters are all out we have a very respectable majority, but it will not do to sleep.

Breckinridge's Speech.

The speech of Breckinridge delivered on the 11th inst., came far short of the anticipations of his friends. It was intended as a defence but as such it was a failure — did not amount to that — it was merely an attempt. He denounced the doctrine of Popular Sovereignty as a dogma, but did not give the date of his change of sentiment, and he certainly has changed, for on that "dogma" as he is now pleased to term it, both he and Buchanan were elected four years ago. His speech has if possible, left him in a more inconsistent and unenviable position than he occupied previous to the delivery of it. It is a sorry sight to see a young man of his standing and ability sacrificed as he is being, merely to gratify the personal feeling of envy, animosity and hatred his pretended friends have against Judge Douglas. Prior to the Baltimore convention, no man of his age stood as fair a chance as he did of soon being elected President of these United States, but he can never attain that position, now, after having placed himself in the hands of broken down, reckless and vindictive politicians who have adopted as their policy "rule or ruin."

That it may not be said that we misrepresent the former and present positions of Mr. Breckinridge, we quote from his speech made at Tippecanoe battle ground in the campaign of 1856:

"I am connected with no party that has for its object the extension of slavery, nor with any to prevent the people of State or Territory from deciding the question of its existence or non-existence with them for themselves."

He now renounces the doctrine in the above sentence "dogma," and by taking the other side of the question, admits that he is now "connected with a party that has for its object the extension of slavery," and denies to themselves the right to make their own laws on the subject of slavery. Men who change thus are not reliable and will not do to follow as leaders.

That Platform.

Our old neighbor up street blows very extensively over the congratulatory of letters called for short, the Chicago platform. As he accuses such a "dog" thing, we hope he will tell us and the rest of his readers without equivocation, what he understands the second resolution in that article to mean. We say it that all our readers may see it. We refer particularly to that quoted from the Declaration of Independence. Here is the resolution:

"That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence and embodied in the Federal Constitution, 'That all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed' — as essential to the preservation of the Union, and the rights of the States, and the Union of the States must and shall be preserved."

Does our neighbor understand this to include the negro? If it was not intended to proclaim the doctrine of negro equality why was it incorporated. No one denies that all white men should enjoy all the rights enumerated in the above resolution. We ask again, if it was not intended to include the negro why was it incorporated.

More About Mattingly's Beauty.

As our readers know, two weeks ago we analyzed somewhat to "Old Adams" for having spoken of him in connection with Mattingly and said we probably did wrong in speaking of him as we did as he was a private citizen. In last week's Republican there is report that persons to have been the conversation between Adams and himself, nearly all of which is a lie, and it matters not to us who is the author of it, Mattingly or Adams. In that conversation Adams did not say one word about "thanking" us, and we did not say "Adams' huge fat" was not scored, did not tremble, did not turn pale nor have any of the symptoms described in Mattingly's last issue. To make the matter short and to prove our neighbor both a liar and a coward, we here state that we will fight either him or his friend Adams, will run a foot race swim a mile, stand on our head or perform any muscular feat with them that will give them satisfaction or amuse them. We have not a vast amount of "muscle" but are willing to "go in" on what we have. So stay your blowing and in the language of the ring, "come to the scratch."

Mattingly need not be mad at us because he is not as good looking as Adams — we can't help it.

Effect of Hendricks' Speech — Adding Lane.

Since the delivery of Col. Hendricks' able speech here on the first day, the Republican of this county have given up all hope of carrying it for their candidate for governor, HENRY S. LANE, and have gone to trading him off to get votes for their candidate for sheriff, who they know is going to need all the votes he can get, they propose to Democrats that they the Republican will vote for HENRY S. LANE, if the Democrats will vote for HENRY S. LANE, and to make it take better they add as follows: "Hon. friends will make a good Governor as he is a very honest, capable man, and then you — speaking to the Democrats — do not want to vote for Lane, for he is a 'Breckinridge man.' So far as their words about Hendricks are concerned, they are very true. But as to the report they are circulating about Lane, that is a miserable, lying lie, as he always has been a firm and uncompromising believer in and advocate of the doctrine of popular sovereignty, and of the claims of STATESMAN A. DOUGLAS to the presidency, and a Democrat in Marshall county will give him a more hearty support than HENRY S. LANE, our candidate for Sheriff."

The Republicans know that their candidate has, on several occasions, failed to discharge his official duties, and they also know that many honest men Republicans will give him the kind of support he deserves, and this is why they are trying to negotiate for Democratic votes; these leaders know further, that BARNARD was nominated by wire working, and that the clique here pulled the wires, and that this township and some persons in North, who had favored, to gether with a few more of his particular friends, who knew how the wires were to be pulled, nominated him.

When LANE goes to be Sheriff and has a warrant taken a man, he will not sit and talk as HENRY S. LANE has done on a few days since, and AWAY WITH HIM AND REPORT 'NOT FOUND.' Such a man should not have any office of honor, trust or profit.

Democrats, all you have to do is to vote the straight ticket and we will elect all our candidates.

Subscribers to the Democrat.

Who may be in arrears to this office, will greatly oblige us by paying, if not all, at least a part of what they owe us, when their bills are presented. Those who have so promptly responded to our call in this hour of need, will please receive our hearty thanks. Our weekly expenses for hired help, paper, rent, &c., are very heavy, and in view of a payment we soon must make, we earnestly call upon those owing us, to help us NOW! Don't wait, if it can possibly be avoided, "Until the first time you come to town," but remember — friends — the additional expense we incur in employing a Collector.

"A Feast of Reason and a Flow of Soul"

Great Republican Mass Meeting at Grovetown!! Turn Out!!

SPECIAL TRAIN—HALF FARE!!

"A FEAST OF REASON AND A FLOW OF SOUL"

OUT-FOURING OF THEM ASSEMBLED

FOUR "FIZZLES" IN THREE DAYS!

"FIZZLE"—PLAY-OUT, NO. 1.

On the 30th ult. the Democrats of Tipton invited the Democracy of this and adjoining counties, to their place to help raise pole and listen to some speeches. As we stated last week the pole broke, but with that exception the undertaking was a success. In his last week's issue old pug nose of the Republican rejected exceedingly because the pole had broken, and called it a "fizzle" "break down" &c. On the same day that his paper came out making fun, in his severe manner, of the meeting at Tipton, there was to be a great Republican Mass Meeting at Grovetown. Bills had been posted on which was the heading that stands at the commencement of this article. "Grand Mass Meeting—Special Train—Half Fare—'Good Time' and more interesting than all else—'A feast of reason and a flow of soul'—was 'expected'."

When the time came for the "special train" to start, the "soul" flowed on to the number of DEMOCRATS, including a "section loss," on the railroad, and his wife. "All aboard," and off they went. When they arrived at Grovetown, two or three men, and twice as many women and children were near by to receive them. One old gentleman proposed "three cheers for Lincoln" and as nobody responded, he commenced to give them on his "own hook" "hurrah!" once, "hurrah!" and fizzled on the second attempt when he got through with the first syllable. By this time the vast crowd had gotten off the train and were ready to hear the "distinguished speakers" who had "promised to attend and address the people."

They were no more, strange to say, and the vast crowd—numbering in all fifty two including women babies and all, had to be content with hearing a few extracts from the Marshall county Republican record and some of the dry remarks any small crowd has ever bored with in this district, during the present campaign.

Finally as all "good time" must have an end and the crowd dispersed. Those who went from here came up town the back way, and deny that they attended the "feast of reason and flow of soul" at Grovetown, on the 11th inst.

So ended Fizzle No. 1.

"FIZZLE—BREAK DOWN" NO. 2.

Fizzle number two occurred at Bremen in Republican township on Friday last, where the Republican attempted to raise a pole taller than the one raised there some time since by the Democrats, and failed "fizzled" and the pole did "Break Down." What made more aggravating was the fact that these were more Democrats present than there were Republicans.

"Good time" number two like number one at Grovetown, came to a close, by the Republicans appointing another day to raise the pole and have another "feast of reason and flow of soul."

"FIZZLE" NO. 3.

"Fizzle" number three came off on Saturday last. There was to have been another "good time" accompanied by a "feast of reason and a flow of soul" on that day at Fourteen. It rained in the morning until about nine o'clock and the managers concluded to postpone the "feast" until next Tuesday. The great trouble was that they could not raise the "feast" to chatter the train, and the Railroad, since the "feast" at Grovetown, does not have very much faith in Grand Republican excursions. "Fizzle" number three was a "flat-out."

"FIZZLE" NO. 4.

Fizzle number four occurred at Walkerton, just across the county line. The pole did not come—We suppose they had about as great a "feast" as the one at Grovetown.

These are all the Grand Republican "fizzles" that we heard of last week.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR—Col. John Smith, a substantial farmer of St. Joseph county, is the candidate for Senator in this district.

Col. Smith is a man of good practical judgment, an old citizen, a man of extensive information, and well posted in the history of the country, general and political.

Came up now farmers, to the support of the Democratic nominee. Look at J. F. MILLER the Republican candidate in comparison. He is a clever little man enough, no doubt, but he seems to get for nothing but to wear fine clothes, and spend money. He married rich, boards at a big hotel, has delicate hands that he never soils, and dresses as though he was always going to a party; yet he can't make a speech that would do credit to a school boy, nor has he anywhere shown any evidence of good practical hard common sense, nor has he any other equipment.

Col. SMITH is "one of you." He works hard, "wears good clothes of Sunday and on holiday," has age and experience, and is in every respect, a man of strong natural intellect, and well informed, and would do credit to you as a law maker. Choose now between the "young dandy pettifogger," and the strong minded intelligent middle aged man of business.

The Grand Demonstration.

The committee of Arrangements for the State mass meeting, on the 25th instant, are actively engaged in making ample preparations for the same. No effort will be left unattempted to make it the most imposing demonstration ever witnessed in Indiana. Some of the ablest orators in the country will be present. Mr. Douglas will positively be here, and such are his engagements that he will not be able to meet his fellow citizens elsewhere in this State. Our candidate for Vice President, HERSCHELL V. JOHNSON, has promised to be present if possible. — PENN and TON, of Ohio; REYNOLDS of Illinois; DIXON and MASON, of Kentucky; HALL and KING, of Missouri, will probably attend. More than all, the people will be here from all parts of the State to manifest their devotion to the cause. They are coming on horseback, in wagons, by railroads, with banners and devices of every kind which popular enthusiasm can suggest. These, with the illuminations, the fire works and the torch-light procession at night, will be a sight worth witnessing. Arrangements have been made for reduced railroad fares in every direction, but we suggest to our friends within reasonable distance to come in their own conveyances. Convenient camping grounds will be provided for such in the immediate vicinity of the city. Let the Democracy come up every part of the State in numbers and zeal that will convince the Opposition that we are fully alive to the importance of the great issues in the present contest.—State Sentinel 10, inst.

Who is going from Marshall? It will, unquestionably be the greatest meeting ever held in our capital. All those who can spare the time and means to go to Indianapolis on the 25th, will never regret it.

Terrible Accident!!

SINKING OF THE STEAMER ELGIN!!

THREE HUNDRED LIVES LOST!!

The Chicago paper being us full details of the melancholy accident which befel the steamer Elgin, on her return from Chicago to Milwaukee, with an excursion party, on Saturday night last, (8th inst.) Three hundred lives were lost—75 only were saved! The Captain of the steamer is among the lost.

This terrible slaughter of human beings was caused by the steamer having been run into by the schooner Augusta, Capt. Marrott, although at the time of the collision, the former had on her head lights, and the cabin was brilliantly illuminated. The steamer sunk in 30 minutes after the collision.

Over one hundred persons were washed from the decks, and perished within twenty yards of the shore, before assistance could reach them. Most of those who perished lived in Milwaukee. The collision occurred about 10 miles from shore and 15 miles from Chicago. The Captain of the schooner is under arrest.

GERMAN TOWNSHIP.—The clique of this place is working hard in German township. There is scarcely a week passes but there is some hired German speaker posted to speak in that township, but it will do them no good, as the people of that vicinity do their own thinking. The hired German stumblers who do not like the principle that allows the people to make their own laws, had better go back to the old country, as they will not be able to subvert this government, we hope. The people of this country must and will govern themselves, and those who love centralization of power to regulate local affairs are not loyal to the interests of this country and should seek a monarchy where they are governed by a despot.

To The Democracy of Indiana.

The October election for 1860 is fast approaching and you will soon be called upon to decide the destiny of your State for the next two years, and perhaps for years to come.

You have arrayed against you an insidious and powerful political adversary—the Black Republican party—a party whenever it has achieved success has used its power for the purpose of arraying one section of the Union against the other, and for advancing the odious doctrine of "negro equality," a party that has shown itself completely incapable of resorting to any means, however disreputable or dishonest to succeed; a party whose political record in Indiana is stained with election frauds and official perjury committed in their unholy efforts to grasp political power; a party who are completely in the minority in our State, and always will be when the issue is tried upon its true merits, and which only hopes to succeed by the divisions in our ranks.

It is with such a political organization you have to contend at the October election. Are you willing to yield up the contest and place the affairs of the State in their hands? Are you willing to carry on an unnatural warfare against yourselves, thus, by your divisions, dividing the strength of the honest and upright minority to succeed in grasping the reins of government?

We have State, Congressional and local elections in the field,—good men selected by the whole party, —discriminated before any division disclosed itself in our ranks, and all without regard to individual preferences on the Presidential question. These men have the right to expect an honest and faithful support from all Democrats, disregarding divisions or divisions that have arisen subsequent to, or even prior to, their nomination, because the honor of all Democrats by the usage of our party is pledged to them, and that pledge is faithfully redeemed.

Let us, then, unite together as one party and for the time by aside our family quarrels and present a solid unbroken front in our State election, and drive back once more the cohorts of Black Republicanism, and secure a victory for the Democratic party and the whole party a victory which will not be claimed by any wing, but that shall be due alike to all, in the name of a united Democracy, over our common enemy, the Black Republican party. Believing that the success of a party such as the Black Republican, based upon sectional issues and geographical divisions, would endanger the peace, prosperity, and even the perpetuity of the government, we, as patriotic and conservative citizens to aid in this effort both in its State and general elections. We regard this the duty of all who desire to maintain the Constitution and the Union as it is, as handed down to us by the patriots who framed and cemented the Union, and who, as such, are the backbone of the nation, and who have become a powerful and prosperous nation.

The State Central Committee recommend for a more perfect organization of the party and to secure a full vote at the October election, that the Democracy in each township in the State meet on Thursday, the 25th day of September, to thoroughly organize, and request the local secretaries, candidates, and all interested in the cause, to aid in the work. By order of the Democratic State Central Committee.

N. B. PALMER, Chairman.

Indianapolis, Sept. 8, 1860.

AN ADMONITION.—The New York Times, a leading Republican paper, though generally very independent in its views of public men and measures, thus speaks of senator Douglas and Popular Sovereignty:

"In the Northern States Mr. Douglas is strong partly on account of his political position and partly from his personal qualities. He represents more thoroughly than any other public man that quickness of intellect, vigor of will and restless restlessness of temper which characterize American life. 'But aside from these personal considerations and characteristics, Mr. Douglas is the champion of Popular Sovereignty and whether that doctrine finds a warrant in the Constitution, in legal precedent in the opinions of the fathers, or not, it has a very strong hold upon the popular instinct. The great mass of the people in all sections, whatever may be their opinions upon its legal validity, recognize it as a fact, just as they do of solving a difficult problem. Let the people of every Territory decide for themselves whether they will have slavery among them or not—let Congress and the Federal Government abandon all attempts, either by direct action, or by indirect means, to admit it. This, if not the highest Constitutional ground, is ground which satisfies the instincts of men of the American people."

Extract from Henry Clay's Speech.

BEFORE THE KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE, IN THE YEAR 1850.—I may be asked, and I have been asked when I would consent to a dissolution of the Union. I answer, Never, Never, Never! If the agitation in regard to the fugitive slave law should continue an increase, and become alarming, it will lead to two new parties, one for the Union, and the other against the Union; and the platform of that Union party will be THE CONSTITUTION, AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS. And if it should be necessary to form such a party, it should be accordingly formed. I announce myself in this place a member of that party, whatever may be its component elements.

Mr. Douglas spoke to 5000 persons at Petersburg, Va., on the 24th. He evidently intends to defend his position from the attack of secessionists as well as abolitionists, and to do so, manfully, he goes to the South and looks them in the face. "Fearless and true."

NOTICE TO OUR PATRONS.

Mr. J. S. SEOTT, who transacts a general Collecting and Newspaper Agency business, will soon call on many of our subscribers, with the amount they owe the office, and will also receive further subscription to the Democrat. Those who can will greatly oblige by paying the full subscription for one year, as it will save double trouble settling up. He is fully authorized by us to receipt for money due the office on subscription or otherwise. For the furtherance of the cause of Democracy and at the solicitation of our friends, we will send the Democrat at the following rates, commencing on the 25th of July.

For the Democrat.

Democrats! "Roll on the Ball."

Tune—Hurrah for the Bonnets of Blue.

Here's a health to our Country's friend, The friend of the Weak and the Poor, Who never will suffer a tyrant to place His foot on Columbia's shore. It is good to be honest and free, It is good to be faithful and true. It is good to support the Democrat's cause, And to vote for the great DOUGLAS, too.

Hurrah, for our leader, so brave— He'll put down his enemies—all; And Douglas our Country will save, Then, Democrats! "Roll on the Ball."

Here's a health to great DOUGLAS, who fought, And will conquer in Liberty's cause, Here's a health to the Statesman, who could not be bought, To favor Black Republican laws.

Hurrah, for the Roman-like Chief, Who never misses fire at all, He will give to our Country relief— Then, Democrats! "Roll on the Ball."

Hurrah! for our leader, so brave, From the mountain-top down to the sea— He will triumph o'er glory and knave, And protect our Liberty Tree.

He's as true as brave JACKSON, of old, Then rally at Liberty's call, The great "LITTLE GIANT" is fearless and bold, Then, Democrats! "Roll on the Ball."
